

IronWorks: “First Responders: All in From the Start”
September 28 & October 3, 2018 Teacher: Roger Thompson

“First to Hear”

“First Responders” are not only those who rush to the scene of a fire, an accident or a threat. They are men who see the need, hear the call of God, and go ALL IN from the start.

How can I hear the living voice of God & be a first responder?

1. SAMUEL was a First Responder to hear God:

1 Sam. 3:4-9

2. What are the practices of a First Responder to hear God?

- A sense of calling:
- A childlike readiness:
- A burden for the people:

IronWorks: “First Responders: All in From the Start”
September 28 & October 3, 2018 Teacher: Roger Thompson

“First to Hear”

“First Responders” are not only those who rush to the scene of a fire, an accident or a threat. They are men who see the need, hear the call of God, and go ALL IN from the start.

How can I hear the living voice of God & be a first responder?

1. SAMUEL was a First Responder to hear God:

1 Sam. 3:4-9

2. What are the practices of a First Responder to hear God?

- A sense of calling:
- A childlike readiness:
- A burden for the people:

3. How can I be a First Responder to the voice of God?

- Listen for the Holy Spirit to amplify the Word
- Create quiet places and spaces to meditate: Commanded (Josh 1:8)

Humbly ask: James 1:5

Test your promptings –

Expect God to speak, guide, enlighten TODAY:

“The essence of despair is to relegate God’s presence to the past.”

- Act: respond
“INSTANT OBEDIENCE TO THE INITIAL PROMPTINGS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT!”

Questions for discussion:

1. When someone says: “God spoke to me,” how do you discern if it is true?
2. How has God spoken to you, or led you clearly, in the past.
3. What practice could I begin that would help me hear God more consistently?

3. How can I be a First Responder to the voice of God?

- Listen for the Holy Spirit to amplify the Word
- Create quiet places and spaces to meditate: Commanded (Josh 1:8)

Humbly ask: James 1:5

Test your promptings –

Expect God to speak, guide, enlighten TODAY:

“The essence of despair is to relegate God’s presence to the past.”

- Act: respond
“INSTANT OBEDIENCE TO THE INITIAL PROMPTINGS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT!”

Questions for discussion:

1. When someone says: “God spoke to me,” how do you discern if it is true?
2. How has God spoken to you, or led you clearly, in the past.
3. What practice could I begin that would help me hear God more consistently?