

IronWorks: “First Responders: All in From the Start”
October 5 & 10, 2018 Teacher: Roger Thompson

First to See: Joshua

“First Responders” are not only those who rush to the scene of a fire, an accident or a threat. They are men who see the need, hear the call of God, and go ALL IN from the start.

What do I perceive when I see what I see?

Perception is reality.

What Joshua saw:

Exodus & miracles

Tabernacle

Example of Moses

God’s judgment

Waiting

What Joshua perceived from what he saw:

- The promise of God:

Caleb & Joshua: “Let us go up at once to occupy it, for we are well able to overcome it.” (Num. 13:30)

- Confidence and courage to lead: Josh. 1:1-6
- The straightedge of truth: Josh. 1:8
- The slice of time he occupied: Deut. 31:14-16/ Josh. 24:14-15

How can I be a First Responder to what I am seeing?

1. See beyond the immediate to the bigger picture:
2. See beyond obstacles to the promise:
3. See beyond my weakness to God's strength:

Questions for discussion:

1. What is something, someone, or some issue I "see" differently today than I did in the past?
2. What do I now "see" that God was doing in me while He allowed me to struggle, or wait?
3. How do I "see" God working in my life right now?
