

IronWorks: "Imitate Me"

4/6 & 11, 2018

Teacher: Roger Thompson

"This is how I tell my story"

- My story is unique.
- God is not only my Creator: He is the Author of my story.
- When I understand my own story I see God's hand more clearly.
- My story can powerfully display God's mercy and power to others.

If someone asks about your hope as a believer, always be ready to explain it. But do this in a gentle and respectful way"

1 Peter 3:15-16

Take a few minutes to work through these questions so you can be ready for the next open door God gives you to tell your story.

My Life Before Christ

1. What was my experience and belief about God at an early age?
2. What about my life before Christ seemed normal at the time?
3. What did my life revolve around? Where did I get my security, identity or happiness?
4. How did those things begin to let me down? How did I begin to see my need or my longing for God?

How I Came to Christ

1. When and where was the first time I heard the gospel? What were my initial reactions?
2. When and why did my perspective begin to change toward Christ? (Is there a verse or passage of scripture that was pivotal for my understanding and faith?)
3. What were the circumstances in my life or the struggles that went through my mind just before I accepted Him? Why did I finally repent and receive Christ as my Lord and Savior?

My Life After Coming to Christ

1. How is my life different now? List some specific changes in your character, attitude and perspective on life.
2. What motivates me now? What do I live for?
3. Even though my life still isn't perfect, here's what keeps me trusting and growing in my walk with God.
