“Still The Center”

There is one thing a professor can be absolutely certain of: almost every student entering the university believes, or says he believes, that truth is relative.

The danger we’ve been taught to fear is not error, but intolerance. Openness is the only virtue.

Alan Bloom, The Closing of the American Mind, 1987

DESPITE WHAT YOU’VE HEARD. . .

Truly, truly I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life.

John 5:24

Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life.

John 6:47

I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

John 14:6

It’s SO TRUE what Jesus says about LIFE:

It’s true that life is more than just surviving.

It’s SO TRUE what Jesus says about DEATH:

It’s true that death is inevitable, but it’s not the last word.

Questions for discussion:

- 1) What is a popular half-truth about life (success, failure, pain, happiness) that you have discovered is false?
- 2) In what ways is it true that you are only fully alive when you know Jesus?
- 3) What is a popular assumption about Jesus that is inaccurate? How would He respond to this belief about Himself?
